

House Party Programme

TUESDAY

10:00 10:30	WELCOME! Kicking off the HouseParty in the main hall and introducing the Regenda-sponsored UnExhibition, showcasing some of the best housing association-supported community enterprises. Grab coffee, get your bearings, and get the party started.	Ground floor main hall
10:30 16:30	The HouseParty Regenda Pop-Up Exhibition Opens! Come and see some of the best housing provider-supported community and social enterprises, join in with their mini-masterclasses and share ideas.	Ground floor main hall
10:45 11:45	Launching the Digital Hub – John Popham kicks off the digital social action at HouseParty – learn how you can help create the story of HouseParty over the next couple of days. John will show you how to use your mobile phone, your tablet, laptop, and social media to tell the story of this and every other event you go to.	1 st floor Plenary A/F12
11:00 11:45	Filling the village hall – sponsored by Student at Home - who will be kindly running the booking service. This is an open space/open mic session through the whole of HouseParty – come along, find out more, book your slot on the village hall stage, vote on the stuff you want to see talked about!	1 st floor Plenary B/F13
11:00	Building a network - HouseParty is all about stimulating new ideas,	1 st floor

11:45	connections and networks. And we all need friends to get something off the ground and scale up. So, in conjunction with the Social Change Agency we will be running a “I want to build a network” strand at the conference to help ensure people leave HouseParty with a notebook full of contacts and the enthusiasm and motivation to use them to make a difference. At the start of each day Esther Foreman will explain how to set up, maintain and grow your networks and make best use of the network building sessions taking place throughout HouseParty in Corridor Room 2. And we’ll be calling out very soon for people to pitch their ideas for the networks they want to set up (the best ones will get a networking session allocated to them in the programme!	Corridor Room 2 - F15
11:00 12:00	Opening the Museum of Future Housing Technology – Drop into Richard Sage’s impossible museum of housings’ incredible future, discuss previously insoluble problems that future technology might hold the key to solving. And then invent and prototype that solution! The prototype will become an exhibit in the first ever ‘Museum of Future Housing Tech’ Sessions will run at set times throughout the day and will last approximately 30 minutes: drop in, free yourself from the boundaries of current technologies, contribute to the museum and view the freshly created exhibits. Find out more at http://bakedidea.tumblr.com/post/85111644554/the-museum-of-future-housing-tech	1st floor Plenary C/F11
12:00 13:00	LAUNCH: NESTA/ODI Housing Open Data Challenge Open data has the potential to power tools that provide solutions to real problems. And this summer at HouseParty, NESTA and the ODI are launching their Housing Open Data Challenge, looking for new and innovative approaches to leveraging the power of open data to transform the housing landscape. The launch is must attend for all of those wanting to find out more about open data, thinking about entering the challenge, excited about the potential it offers your business or community. NESTA and the Open Data Institute are running a series of seven challenge prizes over the next two years to support the development of more innovative solutions to social challenges using open data. For each challenge, projects will compete for a potential £40,000 grand prize. Find out more at: http://www.nesta.org.uk/project/the-open-data-challenge-series	1st floor Plenary B/F13
12:00 13:15	A fireside chat with Julian Dobson An opportunity to spend time in conversation with HouseParty’s resident smart urbanist, Julian Dobson. Your chance to engage and explore the future of our cities and high streets, urban regeneration in a resource free environment and strategies for civic renewal. Please note that this session is open to a maximum of 10 attendees, so get there early if you want a seat! This session may be video recorded – please do not attend if you are not content for your contributions to be published online.	1st floor Corridor Room 1 - F14

12:00 12:45	A Network against Domestic Violence - The Domestic abuse Housing Alliance invites all housing providers to come to a session to speak about your current response to domestic abuse so that we can work together to build up a multi-agency, best practice response to this issue. Access to safe housing is a key priority for survivors of domestic abuse and factors strongly into their decision making around whether to stay in or leave an abusive relationship. Housing professionals, including caretakers, neighbourhood managers, housing officers and repair staff are in an ideal place to identify those perpetrating and at risk of domestic abuse and their children, and respond to them with appropriate support and information. DAHA's mission is to equip these professionals with the necessary knowledge and skills to support residents to live safely and free of abuse.	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
12:15 12:45	Museum of Future Housing technology reopens for visitors Drop into Richard Sage's impossible museum of housings' incredible future and help create some new exhibits	1st floor Plenary C/F11
12:15 13:15	What's social? A HouseParty mocktail party to get those conversations flowing... How do you sell social housing at a party? How come your friends don't really understand what your job is about? And if they don't, why do we expect politicians or the general public to? Join Colette McKune for an interactive exploration of what social housing might be for in 2014 (and beyond). Programmes like Benefits Street have confused the public as to the need social housing is intended to meet, and the people it is intended to help. But before we can convince the public, we need to agree amongst ourselves... Please note, this session has a maximum capacity of 45 and doors will open 10minutes before the session starts.	1st floor Plenary A/F12
12:30- 14:00	LUNCH Hang out, network, tweet, and check out the exhibition over lunch - lunch bags generously provided by Trafford Housing Trust Lunch (and coffee) is being provided with support from the fantastic Trafford Housing Trust. It's 100% vegetarian to ensure as many people can enjoy it as possible.	Ground floor main hall
13:00 14:15	NESTA/ODI Housing Open Data Challenge Idea-athon Follow-up the launch of NESTA's Housing Open Data Challenge by contributing your ideas on how opening up housing data could help transform your business, help your residents access better services, improve neighbourhoods and promote increased housing supply. An opportunity to contribute your insight and energy to one of UK Housing's most exciting new data initiatives. And if you are up for entering the challenge, a great way to build networks, gather ideas and find partners able to bring your concepts to life.	1st floor Plenary C/F11

13:30 13:45	Coffee Networking/Open Space – Want to grab some people for an impromptu presentation also on the fly networking. This space is for you!!	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
13:45 15:00	Where Would We Be Without Maverick Community Led Housing Initiatives? Jon Fitzmaurice, assisted by Steve Hoey from Canopy Housing and Mike McCusker from Fresh Horizons, will showcase some of the best self-generated, community-led housing initiatives and organisations currently around, explain how small scale community-led action can put large risk averse organisations to shame and heroically argue that the best housing business plans are those written on the back of beer mats in pubs.	1st floor Plenary A/F12
13:30 14:45	Economics, housing, welfare, the future (& everything else) Leading economic commentator, blogger, tweeter Frances Coppola sets out a range of possible radical future economic scenarios facing UK housing providers and their residents. What will changes in state finances mean for social subsidies? What’s happening to jobs and salaries, and what might that do to the nature of employment and the debate on welfare? What constitutes risk in a world where nothing is certain anymore? And what on earth is going on with the housing market?	1st floor Plenary B/F13
13:30 14:45	A fireside chat with Anne McCrossan An opportunity to spend time in conversation with Anne McCrossan - one of the UK's leading experts in digital transformation, author of the Connected Housing report and advisor to some of the UK's most innovative housing providers. Anne will talk briefly about key themes emerging for Housing organisations from the Connected Housing Index before opening up a general conversation on them. If you want to understand where modern digital businesses are going, what the digital housing association of the future will look and feel like, and how to start on the journey to get there, you need to be part of this conversation. Please note that this session is open to a maximum of 10 attendees, so get there early if you want a seat! This session may be video recorded – please do not attend if you are not content for your contributions to be published online.	1st floor Corridor Room 1 - F14
14:00 14:45	Networks for People Power - The Social Change Agency We're creating a revolution and are looking for brave souls, pioneers and social catalysts to come and start the Peoples Republic. We have created a brand new digital platform which will radically transform the way communities shape regeneration in their own neighbourhood. If you believe people should have control and agency around what gets done in their area and the power to make it happen, then we want you in our network. Come join the fun!	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
14:30	Museum of Future Housing technology reopens for visitors	1st floor

15:00	Drop into Richard Sage's impossible museum of housing's incredible future and help create some new exhibits	Plenary C/F11
14:30 15:15	Launch: HACT/CDFA Community Start-up Micro-enterprise Fund Be at the launch of a new £1m+ fund to provide small scale start up loan funding to residents of housing providers looking to set up their own microenterprises. Find out more about one of UK housing's most exciting new community focused initiatives, and how you can be part of it.	Ground floor main hall
15:00 15:45	Coffee Networking/Open Space – Want to grab some people for an impromptu presentation also on the fly networking. This space is for you!!	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
15:15 16:30	How can we make estates great places to live? The housing estates of the 60s, 70s and 80s are variously demonised, marginalised or ignored in a national housing debate often over-obsessed new build, mixed communities and modern urban design. But – across the country – they provide places to live for millions of households, and often hide within them communities full of ambition and potential to make their neighbourhoods better. Drawing on examples and inspiration from across the UK and beyond, writer, blogger and urban provocateur Julian Dobson sets out a new vision around how we can make all of our estates great places to live.	1st floor Plenary A/F12
15:15 16:30	Are you code? Apps, Social Enterprise and Innovation Kelly Klein from Student@Home explains how apps and social enterprise are going to change the world. Straight from the digital accelerator programme and combing through tech city for the best health and community care apps, Kelly will be presenting some of the most cutting edge apps out there. Alongside Viridian Housing, she will be showcasing the digital future and asking, what do you need to get your organisation and residents -'app-ready'.	1st floor Plenary B/F13
15:15 16:45	Redesigning housing “Design's business involves a relentless enquiry into the best possible way to create the new, discover the unexplored, or achieve the functional. A designer's job is to extend the boundaries of thought, to generate new options, and ultimately, to create value for users. This requires the ability to imagine that which does not exist.” (Ostterwalder & Pigneur, 2010) Generating empathy and prototyping are key for design tools. These are used to generate customer insights by mapping the experience of receiving and delivering a product or service. Helena Trippe and Lais de Almeida propose a highly interactive session where participants get to immerse themselves in the customer experience and that of the provider and explore prototyping to innovate housing practice and delivery.	1st floor Plenary C/F11
15:15	A fireside chat with Frances Coppola	1st floor

16:30	An opportunity to spend time in conversation with Houseparty’s resident economics expert and commentator, and ask the questions you always wanted to ask about the UK economy, banking, welfare reform, the last and next crisis, and where the UK and world economies may be going in the future. Please note that this session is open to a maximum of 10 attendees, so get there early if you want a seat! This session may be video recorded – please do not attend if you are not content for your contributions to be published online.	Corridor Room 1 - F14
16:45 17:15	Museum of Future Housing technology reopens for final visitors Come and explore the exhibits of the imaginary future technologies that are going to transform housing businesses in the very near future.	1st floor Plenary C/F11
16:45 17:15	Launch: Urbanistas North Kicking off the north of England chapter of housing’s newest network on the block the Urbanistas.	1st floor Gallery area

WEDNESDAY

9:00 9:30	HouseParty day 1 #bestbits A social media driven review of what happened yesterday....	1 st floor Plenary A/F12
9:00 9:30	Filling the village hall – we’re running an open space/open mic session through the whole of HouseParty – come along, find out more, book your slot on the village hall stage, vote on the stuff you want to see talked about!	1 st floor Plenary B/F13
9:00 9:30	Building a network - Houseparty is all about getting new ideas, connections and networks. This session kicks off the second day of our “I want to build a network” strand at the conference. A vital session for those looking to leave HouseParty with a notebook full of contacts and enthusiasm to use them to make a difference. Esther Foreman will explain how to set up, maintain and grow your networks and make best use of the network building sessions taking place throughout HouseParty in Corridor Room 2.	1 st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
9:30 10:45	Shirley Ayres, Helen Reynolds, Paul Taylor – a social conversation Social networks provide some of the most powerful tools available today for building a sense of belonging, support and sharing. Social media is a great leveller because it is not dependent on status but rather the value each of us brings to a conversation. We believe that social engagement should now be part of the core vision of every housing organisation. How social is your organisation and what investment do you need to make to become an influencer in the increasingly crowded social space?	1 st floor Plenary A/F12
9:30-10:45	The official HouseParty worst practice confessional Come and confess your “worst practice” here. Where we all commit to sharing mistakes so others stand a chance of not making them! Get up early and come in to unburden yourself of guilt by confessing to Jayne Hilditch and Rachel Fisher in front of a supportive audience, or (if you’re shy) confess in advance on twitter #myworstpractice and we’ll read them out for you. The antidote to all those terrible “best practice” seminars you wish you’d never gone to....	1 st floor Plenary B/F13
9:30-10:45	DIY Regeneration - co-creating community assets in disused spaces Clear Village welcomes you in the machine room of converting neglected spaces into assets: with the local community in a low cost, high impact manner to address needs of an area which may boost enterprise, public health and life quality. We will host a workshop that involves you in and debates methods and best practice in a nascent field - join in with ideas, comments and curiosity!	1 st floor Plenary C/F11
9:30 10:15	Coffee Networking/Open Space – Want to grab some people for an impromptu presentation also on the fly networking. This space is for	1 st floor Corridor

	you!!	Room 2 - F15
9:30-11:00	The Craftivists say “Yes to Homes” HouseParty is proud to present our own in-house Craftivist, Sarah Corbett. Born out of a deep seated love of cross stitch, hand embroidery and social justice, Sarah is one of the driving forces of today's craftivism movement in the belief that crafting is a powerful way to engage individuals & bring groups of people together to consider social issues. From statement bunting to protest art, you'll see all of her craft in-and-around HouseParty. And she's hosting a special all-day workshop with the Yes to Homes campaign in the concourse on Wed. Wave hello, or get your stitch on. Home is where the heart is..... @craftivists http://craftivist-collective.com	1st Floor Gallery area
10:00-11:00	A fireside chat with Nick Atkin An opportunity to spend time in conversation with Nick Atkin, CEO of Halton Housing Trust and a man on a mission to haul UK housing businesses into a fully digital 21st century. If you want to talk tablets, sensors, online, mobile or virtual, and explore what it will mean for housing businesses, residents and neighbourhoods, you need to be part of this conversation. Please note that this session is open to a maximum of 10 attendees, so get there early if you want a seat! This session may be video recorded – please do not attend if you are not content for your contributions to be published online.	1st floor Corridor Room 1 - F14
10:30-11:15	Coffee Networking/Open Space – Want to grab some people for an impromptu presentation also on the fly networking. This space is for you!!	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
10:30-12:30	The HouseParty Walkabout Jaded from the previous night's festivities? Interested in finding out more about the HouseParty neighbourhood. Just want to stretch your legs and your horizons? Come for a walkabout to explore the area (and test out some cool new tech on the way). Ancoats is a small neighbourhood close to HouseParty containing over 200 Northwards homes. Surrounding areas are benefiting from multi-million pound projects that have converted old mill buildings into apartments, offices and other uses. New cafes, bars and amenities will open up as people move back to the area. As we walk through this fascinating central neighbourhood you will be able to comment in real time about what you see using the cutting edge Commonplace on your smartphone, seeing everyone's comments in real time and creating the basis for a discussion when we return to the venue.	Meet outside the front of the Houseparty venue
11:00-12:15	Housing Question Time Online streaming question time, featuring some of the most provocative and interesting of our HouseParty guests! MORE SOON!	1st floor Plenary A/F12

11:00 12:15	Get yourself profiled! Sitra CEO Vic Rayner leads this session to introduce you to One Page Profiles. This fun and interactive session will lead you through the process of creating One Page Profiles whilst also teaching you how to adopt them into your own organisations. The benefits and outcomes of One Page Profiles for housing will be explored through learning about some of their successes in other organisations. You will also have an opportunity to get on board with the One Page Profile housing challenge!	1st floor Plenary B/F13
11:00 12:15	A Midsummer’s House Dream How often over the last year have you stood around with your colleagues at work and heard yourself (or them) say: “if only ‘they’”; “wouldn’t this place be great if ‘they’”; “why don’t ‘they’ just”; “why do we do that” ... and so on. David Hoyle from New Charter invites you to a Knowledge Café to imaginize what - in 3 to 5 years - housing organisations will need to look like if they are to have the capability and confidence to survive, thrive and innovate in social housing’s ever more turbulent, complex and resource lite operating environment. And places where you really, really (really) want to be working. But; dreaming alone doesn’t get us anywhere – throughout the Café he’ll challenge you to identify up to 3 action points you can use to wake up and start a journey you need to make with and in your organisation.	1st floor Plenary C/F11
11:30 12:30	A fireside chat with Jon Lord An opportunity to spend time in conversation with Jon Lord: former funeral director, ex-punk rocker, full time Bolton Wanderers fan and CEO of one of the most place-focused housing providers in the country – whether its supporting community arts, campaigning to change their local football team’s sponsor (QuickQuid) or relentlessly focusing on the needs of the poorest and most marginal, Bolton at Home are setting agendas. Get to this exclusive chat if you want to challenge notions of what a housing provider is capable of. Please note that this session is open to a maximum of 10 attendees, so get there early if you want a seat! This session may be video recorded – please do not attend if you are not content for your contributions to be published online.	1st floor Corridor Room 1 - F14
11:30 12:15	Coffee Networking/Open Space – Want to grab some people for an impromptu presentation also on the fly networking. This space is for you!!	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
12:15 13:00	LUNCH It’s a superfast lunch today, to enable us to fit even more into the programme, but the same great lunch bags as yesterday are being generously provided by Trafford Housing Trust It's 100% vegetarian to ensure as many people can enjoy it as possible.	1st Floor Gallery Area – Village Hall

12:30 13:45	Launching the Community Empowerment Academy The Community Empowerment Academy (CEA) is a brand new social enterprise that develops 'Community Champions' whilst raising tenants/ staff and individuals self-esteem. They are story changers who actively challenge people and communities to change the story that prevents them from moving forward. If you want to hear how you can engage with tenants, staff and communities come and take part in our interactive session and help launch the Community Empowerment Academy. They may even bring cakes! www.communityempowermentacademy.org.uk	1st floor Plenary A/F12
12:30 13:45	#HousingDay2014 pre-launch ideas factory #HousingDay's Ade Capon, #CommsHero hero Asif Choudry and 24Housing's Jon Land are planning to make this year's #HousingDay event even bigger than last year's phenomenal success. Turn up to this session to contribute ideas, enthusiasm, make pledges and feed the excitement.	1st floor Plenary B/F13
12:30 13:45	Leftfield Lunchtime: Balloon Orchestra Workshop Leftfield Lunchtime: Balloon Orchestra Workshop Big Bang Lab – a ground breaking collective working extensively with housing providers, residents and communities - present a creative workshop combining action learning with interactive conversational experience to reflect on practical issues of collaboration and partnership building. Experience the power of creativity using percussive balloons for a mind-set shift. You will be expected to join a group of strangers to co-create and perform live an original piece of music using limited resources. Have fun pushing the boundaries of communication, imagination, disruptive innovation and active participation. And get the chance to star on stage in your own Balloon Music X-Factor final.	1st floor Plenary C/F11
13:00 14:00	A fireside chat with Bob Barr An opportunity to spend time in conversation with Professor Bob Barr, one of the UK's leading and most vocal advocate of open data as well as being more general technology enthusiast, professional geographer and portfolio career holder with interests stretching from a visiting professorship at Liverpool University; Chairmanship of Manchester Geomatics; membership of the Cabinet Office's Open Data User Group and of the Advisory Panel on use of Public Sector Information; elected Member at Warrington Borough Council; Honorary Research Fellow at the University of Manchester; and member of the Board at Helena Partnerships. Most importantly, he is probably the most entertaining speaker about the importance of data and public services you'll ever get the chance to hear.	1st floor Corridor Room 1 - F14
13:00 13:45	Talkabout the HouseParty walkabout An opportunity to talk about the issues encountered on the HouseParty walkabout to Ancoats, look at the feedback captured on CommonPlace and engage with some other great technologies	1st Floor Gallery Area – Village Hall telling us more about the neighbourhood we just explored.

14:00 14:45	Council Homes Chat Network Council Homes Chat are building a network to help change the conversation surrounding social housing and aim empower staff and tenants to tell their stories in a way that attracts mainstream media attention and makes the wider population 'sit up and pay attention'. They want anyone with a passion for social housing and storytelling to come and get involved in creating the greatest story ever told about the way we live.	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
14:15 15:30	Data, visualisation, infographics and next wave decision-making Too much of housing is still stuck in a world of dead tree reports and static yet incomprehensible spreadsheets. Cutting edge housing data geeks Stephen Russell and Andrew Callaghan will be setting out a radical manifesto for next wave decision making in housing providers – its one that's all about great data brilliantly presented to tell stories and solve problems. They'll showcase some of the best visualisation tools available to housing providers and share some exclusive data visualisations they've created especially for HouseParty.	1st floor Plenary A/F12
14:15 15:30	#UKHOUSING #FUTURESHOCK!!!! In which Paul Taylor , John Popham and Matt Leach attempt to blow your brains by showcasing 6 amazing new technologies that are going to change how we live, the homes we live in, the nature of our jobs, and the way we waste our spare time. Audience opinion will be captured digitally and streamed online – share your #Futureshock!!!! reactions: horror, excitement or bemusement with the #UKHousing online community and help set the terms of the forthcoming debate.	1st floor Plenary B/F13
14:15 15:30	Afternoon tea, cupcakes and wellbeing Afternoon tea, cupcakes, health and wellbeing Put on your aprons, roll up your sleeves and decorate cupcakes with Andrew Van Doorn whilst learning more about housing, health and wellbeing. And of course, drinking tea and eating cake.	1st floor Plenary C/F11
14:30 15:45	A fireside chat with Geeta Nanda A unique opportunity to talk in depth with Geeta Nanda, CEO of Thames Valley Housing Association, one of the most high profile proponents of new thinking around housing businesses and housing supply. We're expecting discussion to cover how you create an innovation culture in a housing organisation; the types of homes we'll be living in next; what the housing association of the future is going to look like; and probably a bit of Fizzy Living! Please note that this session is open to a maximum of 10 attendees, so get there early if you want a seat! This session may be video recorded – please do not attend if you are not content for your contributions to be published online.	1st floor Corridor Room 1 - F14

15:00 15:45	Coffee Networking/Open Space – Want to grab some people for an impromptu presentation also on the fly networking. This space is for you!!	1st floor Corridor Room 2 - F15
16:00 16:45	Goodbye HouseParty2014! Welcome to HouseParty2015! HouseParty was a massive reckless experiment in seeing whether there was a new community in housing that wanted to do things differently. And its brilliant that so many people also wanted to Party! Next year, though, we want the Party to be bigger and better! So come to this session and tell us - what did we do right? And what did we get wrong? How can HouseParty2015 give us even more of what we enjoyed (and less of the stuff we found boring)? And who wants to volunteer to help us get next year’s party going?	1st floor Plenary A/F12

And there’s more!

THE HOUSEPARTY POP-UP UNEXHIBITION

On Tuesday, we’re holding a one day pop-up exhibition, co-hosted with Regenda Group, showcasing some of the best housing provider-supported social and community enterprises out there. Find out more about brilliant stuff that’s happening, make contacts, share ideas and get enthused. It’s the first ever housing and community investment UnExhibition, and we’re delighted to have it here at HouseParty! There’ll be more info on this coming soon, including details of an all new housing, community investment and regeneration network being launched exclusively at this year’s UnExhibition.

HouseParty Pop-Up Exhibition timetable

10:30	Opening of the Exhibition - Regenda	Ground Floor Main Hall
10:50	Insane Logic - Zoe Peden Insane Logic have created an app called MyChoicePad that uses Makaton symbols and signs to aid effective personalised communication and to help raise standards in safeguarding. It is used by organisations to help train staff and also used by children and adults with language and communication issues to help them lead independent lives.	Ground Floor Main Hall
11:40	Aksa - Mushtaq Khan Aksa Homes is a community-based housing association working in Greater Manchester. Most of our properties are in vibrant multi-cultural areas and we seek to be more than just a landlord enabling our tenants to improve their life opportunities.	Ground Floor Main Hall
12:05	Upturn - Anwar Ali Upturn is a recognised non-profit Social Enterprise Limited by guarantee that is committed to assist individuals, public, private and third sector organisations and businesses unlock and fulfil their potential. We do this by delivering sustainable solutions that have a positive and long lasting impact upon the wider community.	Ground Floor Main Hall
12:30	Shoots (Helena Partnerships) - Mark Jory and Jennie Williams Shoots are a social enterprise selling fruit/veg/eggs through community venues via a volunteer network linked with Merseyside Probation.	Ground Floor Main Hall
12:55	Enterprise Cube - Paul Funnell By Creating and Unlocking Business for Everyone the CUBE is helping residents and housing associations to join a growing grassroots enterprise movement.	Ground Floor Main Hall
13:20	Contour Homes - Andrew Lord Contour Homes is a social landlord, delivering innovative solutions for homes and communities across the North West . At Houseparty they will showcase some of their innovative partnership work in Oldham working alongside Regenda and other partners, and some of their development schemes and community work in Broughton, Salford.	Ground Floor Main Hall

13:45	Sharing Lives - Alex Fox The UK network for small community services.	Ground Floor Main Hall
14:30	Start Up Micro-Enterprise Project Launch	Ground Floor Main Hall
15:15	Raise the Youth - Jason Steele Raise the Youth Foundation is a social enterprise who deliver services across Greater Manchester.	Ground Floor Main Hall
15:40	Housing21 - Kath Miller Housing & Care 21 is a social enterprise for older people. They will be showcasing current innovations including tenant community shops, grow your own projects/community cafes and digital awareness projects.	Ground Floor Main Hall
16:05	UCAN Centre (Bolton at Home) – Lisa Charles Bolton at Home are promoting their Urban Care and Neighbourhood (UCAN) centres that are a home for local facilities and services which support the delivery of initiatives to tackle crime, promote employment and learning, and help sustain the neighbourhood in that community.	Ground Floor Main Hall

Please note - that also exhibiting but not presenting will be:

SnugBug Houseshare (St Vincent’s Housing Association)

Snugbug Houseshare are a social shared housing scheme for young people aged 16-25 in Manchester.

COMMUNITY ENTERPRISE MINI-MASTERCLASSES

Every half hour through the day at Tuesday’s Pop-Up UnExhibition, we’ll be running mini-masterclasses at which some of the best housing provider supported community enterprises will share the stories of their success. The masterclasses will be taking place in the Main Hall, but with very limited places available for each session, get there early to make sure you get a seat!

REGENDA DROP IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND REGEN CLINIC

If you've got a community development or regeneration question you've always wanted answered, have a big challenge you want to share, or just want to chat about what you're doing to turn around your local neighbourhood, feel free to drop into the Clinic in the Corner Room (F17) on the first floor of HouseParty. The Clinic will be running all the way through Tuesday 24 June. More details on expert sessions to come soon...

11:00	Beyond Regen - a snapshot of a Place & People regeneration project at Limehurst in Oldham, with Chris Standish, Project Manager.	1 ST Floor Corridor Room F/17
11:45	Dementia innovation project - Regenda in partnership with Oldham Clinical Commission Group, with Andy Carberry, Head of Independent Living.	1 ST Floor Corridor Room F/17
1:45	Community Apprentices - an innovative project linking local apprentices to community improvement and action, with Kev Short and some of the apprentices.	1 ST Floor Corridor Room F/17
2:45	Community Apprentices - an innovative project linking local apprentices to community improvement and action, with Kev Short and some of the apprentices.	1 ST Floor Corridor Room F/17

THE VILLAGE HALL

Great ideas you want to share? Something you need to tell and show the world about? Too late to get on the programme for HouseParty 2014 but too impatient to wait for 2015? You're in luck! We're running an open space/open mic session through the whole of HouseParty in the foyer/gallery area on the first floor, where you can grab 20 minutes to attract a crowd, tell a story or make a pitch. If you want to guarantee yourself time at the mic, get along to the "Filling the Village Hall" sessions happening on Tuesday at 11am and/or Wednesday at 9am and book yourself a slot for later that day. We don't want to put a limit on ideas, and we've got enough space for up to 30 additional speakers at HouseParty. We only ask that you keep it lively, exciting, interesting and interactive. Come and make your voice heard!

WANT TO BUILD A NETWORK?

Houseparty is all about stimulating new ideas, connections and networks. And we're running a "I want to build a network" strand at the conference to help ensure people leave HouseParty with a notebook full of contacts and the enthusiasm and motivation to use them to make a difference. At the start of each day Esther Foreman will explain how to set up, maintain and grow your networks and make best use of the network building sessions taking place throughout HouseParty in Corridor Room 2. And we'll be calling out very soon for people to pitch their ideas for the networks they want to set up (the best ones will get a networking session allocated to them in the programme!

VOLUNTEERS!

If you're lost at HouseParty, or just wondering what to do next, grab hold of someone wearing a yellow HouseParty t-shirt. They will be one of our fantastic volunteers. We're massively grateful to the brilliant DotDotDot for helping with volunteer management and to Origin for helping out with getting the t-shirts printed!

KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR CRAFTIVISTS!

HouseParty is proud to present our own in-house Craftivist, Sarah Corbett. Born out of a deep seated love of cross stitch and social justice, Sarah started the Craftivist movement in the belief that crafting is a powerful way to bring groups of people together to consider their social issues. From statement bunting to protest art, you'll see all of her craft in-and-around HouseParty. You'll even see her hosting her special workshop with the Yes to Homes campaign in the concourse on Wed. Wave hello, or get your stitch on. Home is where the heart is..... @craftivists <http://craftivist-collective.com>

THE HOUSEPARTY PARTY!

Whether you're a speaker, supporter, volunteer or sponsor, you're all invited to our end of HouseParty Party on Wednesday night downstairs at Velvet Central, the fab bar next door to HouseParty. It all kicks off around 6:30ish (giving you time to grab a bite to eat before it all starts), and goes on til late. There's a DJ playing funky tunes. And the fantastic PiLON and Wheatley Group have helped out with drinks! A great way to bring HouseParty 2014 to a partying conclusion. Please note, your HouseParty lanyard/pass will be needed to get in! Check out the invite here.